

Generation One, Inc. Liability Release Form

Please read the following document completely before signing

I (Print Name) _____,

Acknowledge and state the following: I have chosen to assist Generation One, Inc. to perform clean up, construction and/or demolition in order to help restore and clean up impoverished areas in Houston's Third Ward.

I understand that this work entails a risk of physical injury and often involves hard physical labor, heavy lifting and other strenuous activity, and that some activities may take place on ladders building framework or heights other than ground level. I certify that I am in good health and physically able to perform this type of work.

I understand that I am engaging in this project at my own risk. I assume all risk and responsibility including related costs and expenses for any injury incurred to myself or to my property while involved in this project.

In the event that my supervising organization arranged this service opportunity, I understand that they are not responsible or liable for my personal effects and property and that they will not provide lock up or security for any items. I will hold them harmless in the event of theft, or loss resulting from any source or cause. I further understand that I am to abide by whatever rules and regulations that may be in effect for the project at that time.

By my signature, for myself, my estate, and my heirs, I release, discharge, indemnify and forever hold Generation One, Inc., together with their officers, agents, servants, and employees, harmless from any and all causes of action arising from my participation in this project, including travel or lodging associated therewith, or any damages which may be caused by my own negligence.

Generation One Volunteer Safety Rules

A primary concern of Generation One, Inc. is the safety of our volunteers. Below is a list of safety rules for all volunteers, as well as a liability form.

Safety Rules:

1. Be conscientious of the safety of others around you.
2. Help maintain the safety of others around you as well as yourself.
3. Use the proper safety equipment while at a work site.
4. Make sure that all tools are used properly and put away safely.
5. Clean up after yourself.
6. Respect the property in those homes and structures in which you are working.
7. Know where first aid kits are and how to get help if needed.
8. Say "Please" and "Thank you" as it goes a long way.
9. Think before you complain.
10. Come with a servant's heart and have fun!

I have read and agree to Generation One's Volunteer Safety Rules:
